where the x axis cuts the y axis

work is not art
a=A
 art work ≠ art.

it is not equal or translatable
do you really understand?

Disinterestedness?
with what values or criterion am I scrutinising them?

Interpretation.
Misinterpretation.

y=f(x)
 y is a function of x

y=f( x )

(either way)

looking with your ideas "f".
 What do you see?
 What you see of "x" is different from what someone else sees.

Problems of diverse interpretations according to 'functions' of different someones' lives.
 Where "f" can be stereotypes, eg. race, gender, age. & problems of psychological interpretations and attributions
