

PATIENT INFORMATION
Who am I a patient of? My own diagnosis, or yours?

THE PARADOX OF FAITH

CHOICES 45 SECOND DECISIONS

Belief and unbelief, two worlds

It's almost as if, everything depends on chance.
Deliberation does not exist.

THE THINGS YOU CANNOT CONTROL:
What happens to you?
WILL THERE EVER BE AN END TO SCIENCE?
Even though many groups of people aim to understand, predict and control, their knowledge remains provisional.

Have you ever come across a personality questionnaire that told you exactly who you were and what you wanted to know of yourself?

BEING SACRIFICED TO IDEOLOGIES OR DEFENDING MY OWN ATHEISM(UNBELIEF), FINDING EXCUSES FOR THIS WORLD WHERE MADNESS EXISTS.
I don't know.
ACCEPT THE PASCALLIAN WAGER.
The elimination of associated doubt or the recognition of the truth by the elimination of associated doubt.
Benefits of belief—like insurance.
Shall I go by that?

WHY DID SHE REJECT NIETZSCHE
suspend judgement for until she dies, perhaps.

MEDICINE
Chinese Medicine: looks at the whole person in order to treat the problem.
we wonder which is right.
Western Medicine, which only began a few centuries ago, treats the same problem in a different way.
And you can imagine what Faith Healers do too.
