

that arbitrary nature which is chaotic. fragmentation, cohesion The Textual I. The painted I, abstraction, paint. What is a conceptual painting? Do we speak more about it than act/paint it out? How does one apply such words to a painting, without superficiality? Would you choose between a live/ life painting or a death painting? maybe there is neither.

