Fares and Tickets Information

How much does it cost?

To see you have to arrive. (travel--to nowhere)

What do people look at when they see the clouds?

what does one do, close off their hearts so that their eyes cannot be seen? take my RH neighbour looking across the sky- (typical (?) Chinesewhat are they thinking of, can what they see be what I see? or do I think I am more? 5.47-glimpse Shanghai what sort of relationship do I have with this place? landing 5:48 pm-Cabin crew be seated for landing. the plane dips to the right and then to the left and up what are they curious to see? Shanghai? Shanghai clouds? what are they looking for? bathed yellow light of the sunset (it isn't common in NZ though) artificial air travelling,

Travel to Destination?

Location.
installation;
At the beach. I cannot understand why I would want to go where everyone is. To enjoy the nothingness of the crowd?
I cannot create my own space
and be comfortable in it at the same time. Perhaps there are far too many real people around.

Trip Over Arriving Timetable EVERYDAY

I have come to see what they can see, using their eyes.
